Joseph and Anne-Marie Sandler formed one of the greatest psychoanalytic partnerships in the history of the discipline. They played a vital role in the development of both the Psychoanalysis Unit and the Anna Freud National Centre for Children and Families and they have left an indelible mark on British and international psychoanalysis.

The recent loss of Anne-Marie served as a poignant reminder of this precious heritage, yet curiously their legacy is rarely celebrated. In this one-day conference, jointly organised by UCL's Psychoanalysis Unit and the AFNCCF, current leaders of psychoanalysis will identify and explore ways in which the Sandler's work has impacted on and advanced their clinical, conceptual or educational worlds.
